OAK BROOK, Ill. -- Consulting-Specifying Engineer has announced the recipients of the 2011 40 Under 40 award. This award is given to 40 building industry professionals age 40 and younger who stand out in their academic, professional, personal, and community achievements. To read a profile of each winner, visit www.csemag.com/40under40.

Candidates were nominated by a professional colleague or mentor and judged based on commitment to excellence in a variety of areas. The May issue of Consulting-Specifying Engineer magazine profiles each young professional, highlighting circumstances that led him/her to success, recent professional projects, and personal achievements.

"This year's 40 Under 40 winners have succeeded as leaders at every level," said Amara Rozgus, Editor-in-Chief of Consulting-Specifying Engineer. "Not only have they propelled their firms to success, they have volunteered their time at industry organizations and charity groups to support their communities. These young leaders show that the building and engineering industries have a bright future."
